MOUNT RUSHMORE NATIONAL MEMORIAL

DISCOVER MONUMENTAL

Nestled among the lush, pine-filled Black Hills National Forest, one of the most recognizable symbols of America is brimming with history, amazing views and family memories that are sure to last a lifetime. Take a look at all the ways you can explore the Memorial and learn its story.

EXPLORING

There is no shortage of things to do, see and explore at Mount Rushmore. With great activities like tours, trails, wildlife spotting and exhibits, you can expect to spend anywhere from 30 minutes to three hours at this remarkable national memorial.

SELF-GUIDED TOURS

Before you start your journey, stop by the Information Center to pick up a self-guided tour and/or a Junior Ranger activity book, find maps, and learn how to join one of the ranger walk and talks.

AVENUE OF FLAGS & GRAND VIEW TERRACE

Upon entering the Memorial, you'll be greeted by the new and improved Avenue of Flags. 56 flags line the walkway to the Grand View Terrace, where you'll have the best views of the entire Memorial. Strike your best pose for family photos, and observe the intricate carving marks on the 5,550 foot-tall monument.

PRESIDENTIAL TRAIL

Jump onto the Presidential Trail to walk along the base of Mount Rushmore. The winding path is a fantastic way to learn more about the presidents and enjoy the beauty of the Black Hills National Forest as you go. The 0.6-mile trail is an easy hike, with 422 stairs along the journey and plenty of places to stop, rest and admire the views along the way.

HERITAGE VILLAGE & YOUTH EXPLORATION AREA

On the eastmost part of the Presidential Trail, you'll arrive at the Youth Exploration Area and Lakota, Nakota and Dakota Heritage Village. This portion allows youngsters to climb, work off energy and learn about the customs and traditions of the American Indian Tribes indigenous to the Black Hills.

LINCOLN BORGLUM VISITOR CENTER

where you can interact with beautiful exhibits and displays inside the Visitor Center and watch a free film. In the film, you'll see historical footage of the carving and hear the details of the long, rocky history of the monument.

BORGLUM VIEW TERRACE & SCULPTOR'S STUDIO

While you walk the Presidential Trail, stop and view the Memorial from the Borglum View Terrace. It was the sculptor's favorite spot to view the mountain and evaluate the progress of the carving. Located just next to this terrace, you can learn more about the work it took to carve Mount Rushmore and the men who did the work at the Sculptor's Studio.

GIFT SHOP & CARVER'S CAFÉ

Relax at Carver's Café, where you can dine with a view of the Memorial. Finish your meal in the café with a scoop of vanilla ice cream based on Thomas Jefferson's original recipe that he brought to the U.S. in 1780.

EVENING LIGHTING CEREMONY

Each evening from late May through September, the Evening Lighting Ceremony is held at dusk. The event includes a 10-minute Ranger Talk followed by a short film, singing of the national anthem and lighting of the sculpture. If you are visiting later in the day, stick around to take part in this moving program.

GETTING AROUND

Once you arrive in the Black Hills and Badlands to check off all of your bucket list items, there's several ways to get around and see it all.

RENT A CAR

As enduring symbols of freedom and exploration, cars are an amazing way to cruise along the many scenic byways throughout the region and hit all of your destinations along the way.

Rent a clean, dependable vehicle from locally-owned Black Hills Car Rentals, or check the numerous major rental companies at Rapid City Regional Airport and buckle in for a classic American road trip.

TAKE A RIDESHARE

Lyft and Uber services are available throughout the area to transport you to your next destination on demand. Download the apps for information on fares and booking.

RIDE A TROLLEY

Clang clang clang...trolley rides are an a fun-filled way to tour the towns. Not only is it a convenient way to get where you're going, but many of the trolleys offer narration and transportation between local points of interest. Find them in Rapid City, Lead, Deadwood and Hill City.

TAKE A TOUR

Sit back and relax in style when you book a trip to see the best of the area with a local sightseeing tour operator. Reserve a trip to the many parks, historic sites and hidden gems when you ride with a qualified tour company.

Tour transportation ranging from a variety of restored VW buses, luxury vehicles, open-top vans and Jeeps can accommodate large groups or small.

Some operators also provide guided adventure tours throughout the year. Check for hiking and biking tours and winter outdoor adventure tours.

Don't see the tour you need? Ask for a custom tour! Many companies offer a touring experience that can be tailored to fit all of your adventuring needs.

See page 6 for more details on the many different operators and tours you can take to check off all your must-sees.

Needles Highway, Custer State Park

SCENIC BYWAYS

BADLANDS LOOP SCENIC BYWAY

ROUTE I-90 Exit 110 (Wall) to I-90 Exit 131
ROAD SD 240
MILES 31 miles
TIME 1 to 2 hours

Meander through the north unit of Badlands National Park on SD 240 surrounded by towering buttes, dramatic cliffs and striated spires. This 31-mile stretch of highway has scenic overlooks with sweeping views of the Badlands' jagged formations, popular hiking trails and the Ben Reifel Visitor Center.

SPEARFISH CANYON STATE SCENIC BYWAY

ROUTE Spearfish to Cheyenne Crossing
ROAD U.S. 14A
MILES 19 miles
TIME 30 minutes

The Northern Hills are home to Spearfish Canyon State Scenic Byway. Towering limestone palisades line U.S. 14A as it twists through the 19-mile gorge. Spearfish Creek traces the canyon where Bridal Veil, Spearfish and Roughlock falls are popular roadside attractions. Hikers find wonder exploring side canyons, and cyclists love the broad shoulders and uniform 3 percent grade.

VANOCKER CANYON/NEMO ROAD SCENIC DRIVE

ROUTE Nemo to Sturgis
ROAD Vanocker Canyon Road FSR 26
MILES 17 miles
TIME 30 minutes

Enjoy the gentle curves of Nemo Road as you follow Box Elder Creek and pass dense pine, abandoned miner cabins and expansive meadows. Turn into Vanocker Canyon a mile from the town of Nemo. The 17-mile leg twists and curves through three breathtaking canyons that give way to a downhill plunge to Sturgis.

BOULDER CANYON SCENIC DRIVE

ROUTE Sturgis to Deadwood
ROAD U.S. 14A
MILES 12 miles
TIME 20 minutes

The high-walled valley road of U.S. 14A provides a short, yet sweet 12-mile drive. This relaxing route between Sturgis and Deadwood is especially stunning in the fall when it's bursting with colorful foliage.

PETER NORBECK NATIONAL SCENIC BYWAY

ROUTE Keystone to Custer
ROADS Needles Highway (SD 87), Iron Mountain Road (U.S. 16A), Horsethief Lake Road (SD 244) and Sylvan Lake Road (SD 89)
MILES 70
TIME 2 to 3 hours

Peter Norbeck Scenic Byway threads its way around pigtail bridges, through one-lane rock-walled tunnels and ascends to the uppermost heights of the Needles. The route is considered one of the most outstanding byways in America. It travels through portions of Custer State Park, the Norbeck Wildlife Preserve, near Mount Rushmore National Memorial and the Black Elk National Wilderness Area.

BELLE FOURCHE TO DEVILS TOWER TOWER SCENIC DRIVE

ROUTE Belle Fourche to Devils Tower National Monument
ROAD SD 34/ WY 24
MILES 52 miles
TIME 1 hour

The journey to Devils Tower National Monument takes you through the picturesque Belle Fourche River Valley on SD 34. As you enter Wyoming, the road changes its name to WY 24. The drive passes through Aladdin, WY, and climbs through ponderosa pine forests. As you approach the town of Hulett, WY, glimpses of the tower emerge from the ranches and grasslands surrounding the rocky hills.

There's no time like vacation time for the whole family to disconnect from their electronics and reconnect with what we love. Here's everything that makes this region the perfect place for kids to reset and have experiences they'll remember forever.

OPT OUTSIDE

A trip through Western South Dakota will have your little ones unplugged and tuned into the sights around them. Exploring clear mountain lakes, towering granite spires, mysterious underground caves, and parks with scores of bison will make sure devices are all but forgotten during the day.

FUN & EDUCATIONAL

The Black Hills and Badlands are filled to the brim with ways for young minds to learn while having fun. Across the region they can soak up U.S. history, take in Native American culture and be wowed by geology and archaeology exhibits. With so many galleries, museums and parks to explore, you're sure to keep the whole family engaged – mind and body.

MAKE LIFETIME MEMORIES

Aside from the natural wonders and history that make the region unique, there are many incredible attractions that are sure to get the blood pumping and the giggles going.

Great for all ages and with no shortage of heart-pounding thrills, the Tubing Hill, Alpine Slide, Aerial Adventure Park and ziplines at Rushmore Tramway Adventures in Keystone are sure to be favorites for years.

Play together as a family like never before at Sprocket's Fun Foundry. This brand-new family fun center is equipped with a fully-immersive virtual reality experience and arcade machines.

Along Highway 16, pet giant tortoises and explore the world's largest collection of reptiles at Reptile Gardens, see a variety of wildlife at the drive-through park at Bear Country U.S.A., and visit Old MacDonald's Farm for pony rides, pig races and more.

When you're in Rapid City, stop downtown to experience vibrant street art and galleries, play in an interactive fountain at Main Street Square and see giant concrete dinosaurs that tower above the city at Dinosaur Park.

Explore Backroads

YEAR-ROUND ADVENTURE

There's no doubt that the Black Hills and Badlands are a summer road trip must, but the other seasons offer some of the best times to experience everything the region has to offer.

See for yourself why cooler temperatures, smaller crowds and the most exceptional sights of each season will have you falling in love and springing for a getaway all year long.

ALWAYS OPEN

This part of the country is built for all-seasons fun. Year-round events, museums, parks, monuments, shops, attractions, wineries, breweries and distilleries are set to fill your days with non-stop adventure.

SPECIAL EVENTS

If one-of-a-kind events are on your list, fall is one of the best times of the year for phenomenal festivals that'll put you right in the mood for pumpkin-flavored everything. Oktoberfests, car shows, concerts, hot air balloon festivals, a buffalo roundup and more are set to make this season unforgettable. See what's happening during your visit on pages 9 and 10.

SMALLER CROWDS AND SHORTER LINES

The fall, winter and spring months are your chance to break away from the crowds and see all the area has to offer. Explore in the spring and fall and let your only traffic jam be a bison jam!

BETTER PRICES

Few things spark satisfaction like saving money on your vacation. Lower prices in the spring, winter and fall months mean more time in the area and more opportunities to stretch your dollar. See more parks, more attractions, and pick up a few more souvenirs with your newfound savings.

ENJOY A DIFFERENT VIEW

The region transforms throughout the seasons and comes with epic views that you won't catch in the summer.

Go on a springtime excursion to see snow-dusted parks, monuments and wildlife, newborn bison calves, and delicate pasque flowers breaking through the thawing soil. Or, visit later in the year for magnificent fall color, breathtaking scenic drives and no shortage of fantastic fall festivals.

Take in these unique seasonal sights by car, or rejoice in perfect conditions for outdoor fun. Hike, ride ATVs and UTVs, go on photography expeditions, or rent a bike and hop on the trails to catch some of the best views.

GET OUTSIDE

Kayaking on Pactola Lake

No matter where you go on your trip, Western South Dakota is an outdoor recreation paradise. With wonderfully diverse terrain and wide-open spaces, there's something for outdoor enthusiasts of all types.

CYCLING

Crushed limestone and gravel paths, wide-shoulder highways, in-town bike paths and rugged mountain trails add up to a destination with scores of variety for all to enjoy.

Nearly all 6,000 miles of the Black Hills National Forest roads and fire trails are open to cyclists, enabling mountain bikers to traverse across the region.

For a tour through the Hills on a crushed gravel path, try the Mickelson Trail. Containing converted railroad bridges and tunnels, this exceptional 109-mile trail cuts through the Black Hills from north to south.

Ride it in sections or explore the entirety of the trail at your own pace. Many cities with amenities and even local rental and repair shops line the trail. See page 33 for more information.

KAYAKING & CANOEING

Breathtaking lakes are scattered throughout the Hills and you can get right out on the water to enjoy them. Rent a kayak, canoe or paddleboard from local outfitters to splash to your heart's content and take in the views.

FISHING

Lakes, dams, creeks and streams are filled with fish ready to bite. Try your hand at fly fishing, casting a line in larger bodies of water or wait until temperatures drop for ice fishing. Whatever your pick, you'll be surrounded by remarkable scenery and sure to take home tasty catches.

Check with the South Dakota Game, Fish & Parks offices at 605-223-7660 for fishing limits and licenses before heading out.

HUNTING

Big game, small game, fowl, deer, elk, antelope, mountain lions – we're no strangers to hunting here.

Hunt a variety of wildlife and book a stay with friendly locals, private lodges and over 30 developed camping areas.

For information on licensing and tag registration, call South Dakota Game, Fish & Parks.

HIKING

One of the best ways to see the region is to get out and take a hike. Hundreds of miles of trails for all levels of hikers web the entirety of the Black Hills and Badlands. Many routes lead to sweeping views, wildlife hot spots, historic sites and stunning overlooks. Find short scenic loops, challenging trails and more to explore on page 34.

Scan the code to discover more or visit blackhillsbadlands.com/outdoor-recreation.

WILDLIFE VIEWING

Prairie dogs, coyotes, deer, bison, elk, bighorn sheep, mountain goats and more fill the mountains and prairies of the region. Keep your eyes peeled for some close encounters – early morning or evening is your best chance to catch sight of these critters as they will be closer to the roads.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Charge up your batteries and clear your digital storage – there's photo opportunities around every corner. Dynamic landscapes filled with rich color, wildlife and bucket-list monuments full of captivating detail will keep your camera busy.

The show doesn't stop after the sun goes down either. Low light pollution and unobstructed views offer unparalleled views of the expansive night sky so you can map out the constellations, find planets and catch shooting stars.

SLEEP UNDER THE STARS

Camping in Badlands National Park

The adventure doesn't end when you turn in for the night. Where you lay your head is just as much a part of the journey as anything else.

Wide-open spaces, quiet corners of the forest, lakeside campsites, luxury treehouses and more are all waiting to be your base camp in Western South Dakota.

Scan the code to discover more or visit blackhillsbadlands.com/stay.

DISPERSED CAMPING

DIY-ers and lone wolves rejoice – the Black Hills and Badlands are your perfect setting for boondocking or dispersed camping.

A plethora of national parks, national forest land and state park areas are open for backpackers and campers.

In Badlands National Park, Wind Cave National Park and Buffalo Gap National Grassland, the backcountry areas are perfect places to decompress. Set up your tent and wake up in the morning to unobstructed prairie views and otherworldly sights.

The only section of Custer State Park that allows dispersed camping is the French Creek Natural Area. This ruggedly beautiful section of the park is filled with great views and plenty of wildlife to spot.

In the Black Hills National Forest, dispersed camping is allowed anywhere away from developed campsites, bodies of water and roads. Across the 1.2 million acres, this gives you tons of places to bunk down.

Always be sure to check with the National Park Service, South Dakota Game, Fish & Parks or the Forest Service for specific information on fees, rules and regulations.

DEVELOPED CAMPSITES

If campgrounds with dedicated amenities and sites are your preferred way to stay, there are dozens of options.

In the region's national parks, you'll find two developed sites in Badlands National Park, Elk Mountain Campground in Wind Cave National Park, and the Belle Fourche River Campground at Devils Tower National Monument.

Six state park and recreation areas in the Black Hills offer modern to basic campsites and even horse camps to accommodate you during your stay.

Check out Bear Butte State Park, Rocky Point State Recreation Area, Spearfish Canyon Nature Area, Custer State Park, Shep's Canyon Recreation Area and Angostura Recreation Area to stay in some of the most spectacular protected parts of the region.

GLAMPING

For those in search of a luxury stay with all the breathtaking sounds, sights and experiences of the outdoors, it's time to give glamping a chance.

Book a night in an authentic covered wagon or yurt at many places in the region, or stay in a glamping teepee at Buffalo Ridge Camp Resort. Most are equipped with running water and sleep several people.

RV Camping

You can even opt for a site with a private deck to chat the night away and watch the stars slowly come into view.

PRIVATE CAMPGROUNDS

Private campgrounds in the region are as abundant and varied as the landscapes surrounding them.

Locations like Mt. Meadow Store & Campground, Custer's Gulch RV Park & Campground and Mt. Rushmore Resort & Lodge at Palmer Gulch offer a full list of amenities for your stay.

Electricity, full hookups, pools, convenience stores, on-site dining, activities, rentals, showers, laundry and more are available to make your stay as comfortable as possible.

MICKELSON TRAIL

Hike or Bike on the George S. Mickelson Trail

Named after the former governor who endorsed its construction, the 109-mile George S. Mickelson Trail is a one-of-a-kind trail dedicated to hiking, biking, horseback riding and snowshoeing.

The crushed limestone trail incorporates over 100 converted railroad bridges and runs through the center of the Hills from north to south. Trekking along any section of it is a smooth, easy journey and an exceptional way to experience the diverse landscape throughout the area.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Bike, run or take an accessible trolley to experience the trail for yourself. The Deadwood Mickelson Trail Marathon, Half Marathon and Relay takes runners and walkers of all levels along 26.2 miles of the northern portion of the trail on June 4 and 5, 2022.

To traverse the entirety of the trail by bike, join in for either the Mickelson Summer Trail Trek or the Mickelson Trail Trek. Each one is a three-day event – the summer trek takes place June 14-16, 2022, and is open to bikes and e-bikes, while the fall trek is September 16-18, 2022, and is only open to bikes.

For handicap access to the trail, make a reservation for Trolley on the Trail. Occurring June 7, July 5 and Sept. 6, 2022, this four-hour trolley ride takes passengers with physical limitations along the trail to enjoy its beauty. Reservations are required, and individuals making reservations must have a handicapped parking permit. One assistant per person can accompany if needed.

OHV PERMITS

Black Hills Motorized Trail Permits are required for all motor vehicles traveling on motorized trails in the South Dakota portion of the Black Hills National Forest. A separate permit is required when operating an OHV in Wyoming.

Scan the code to discover more or visit blackhillsbadlands.com/permits.

COST 7-Day Consecutive Pass, $20; Annual Pass, $25

PURCHASE Buy a permit at local vendors, any Black Hills National Forest Service office, or the Black Hills Visitor Information Center, located off I-90 at Exit 61 in Rapid City.

Annual passes are also available to purchase online before arriving at blackhillsbadlands.com/bhvic.

MOTOR VEHICLE USE MAPS (MVUM)

Free hard copies of the MVUM are available at forest service offices and local vendors. The map is also available online to download to your GPS unit or mobile device using GPS apps, such as Avenza Maps.

RIDE RESPONSIBLY

Ensure that riders can enjoy the wonder of the Black Hills for years to come by riding ethically and responsibly.

Be aware of the most current trail conditions and act appropriately. Check beforehand that your vehicle's width is appropriate for the trail you are riding.

Closures are posted at trail entrances. Obey signs and be cautious of logging trucks on trails with shared use.

Avoid muddy areas – they are more susceptible to erosion. Use caution – ride over obstacles, not around them.

TREAD Lightly!® Minimize your impact on the environment when you ride by traveling responsibly, respecting the rights of others, educating yourself and avoiding sensitive areas.

WESTERN WONDERS

If the west ever stopped being wild, we never got the memo. Experience a little bit of ranch life and a taste of Western culture with authentic events, attractions, reenactments and sights.

LIVE REENACTMENTS

In the Black Hills and Badlands, you'll find plenty of modern life mixed in with parts of the past. Experience history and life as it was way back when with entertaining reenactments for all ages.

Catch a ride on a historic Stagecoach that gives 30-minute, narrated tours of the town's storied history. Tickets are available at the Outlaw Square Stagecoach Stop on Main Street.

While you're there, you'll also find the Deadwood Alive troupe performing free shows and shootouts daily during the summer. Have a seat on Main Street throughout the day to watch performances of "The Strange Tale of David Lunt," "Showdown on Gold Street" and "The Boone May/Prescott Web Altercation." In the evenings, stop by the Franklin Hotel Theatre for the thrilling Trial of Jack McCall.

To see more of this talented troupe, hop aboard the 1880 Train on select dates for an Old West shootout. The train takes off from Hill City to Keystone, and is held up halfway through the ride by bandits – luckily, the sheriff is in town to take care of these outlaws.

Near Custer, Four Mile Old West Town stands as living history. Walk through the recreated town as characters share their knowledge of life in the Old West and perform a weekly melodrama.

HORSEBACK RIDING

Whether you explore the region primarily by bus tour, car, bike or off-roading, you can't miss the chance to experience the land on horseback.

Experience life as the settlers did when you ride through the trees, across creeks and over serene grasslands.

GUIDED RIDES

Haul in your own horse, or ride on one from local outfitters and guest ranches. Blue Bell Stables in Custer State Park, as well as many others, have horses saddled up and ready for a guided trail ride. These rides are suitable for riders of all skill levels and offer a chance to learn all the basics.

HORSE CAMPS

Settle down in the evenings and board your ride at one of the many horse camp throughout the area. These specialized campsites offer room for trailer parking, corrals, water and electricity so you can relax after a long day of riding.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

Before you hit the road with your best buddy, be aware that certified weed free hay is encouraged on all state park equestrian trails and campgrounds. It is required in Sheps Canyon State Recreation Area, Custer State Park, Sage Creek Wilderness Area and Bear Butte State Park.

Additionally, have your horse's travel papers in order, including all current Coggin's and Health Certificates, before you leave home.

LAKOTA CULTURE

Pine Ridge Indian Reservation

The Lakota Nation's proud history, art and heritage run deep through the veins of the Black Hills and Badlands. Many different attractions and museums have curated ways for you to take it all in and learn more about their culture in Western South Dakota.

NATIVE AMERICAN ART

For many, Native American art is a cherished memento commemorating their Black Hills and Badlands travels. Authentic Lakota art made locally is available for purchase at many places throughout the region.

As you visit museums and galleries, take in the symbolism unique to the Sioux throughout Lakota artwork. Many artists showcase their creative vision by incorporating both traditional and modern influences in their work.

The Lakota tribes are known for their intricate quill and beadwork, which remains an integral part of life on reservations. It's an honored and even competitive art form that continues to be passed through generations.

Your purchases of native-made items from local artists encourages the continuation of critical aspects in Native heritage and recognizes the Lakota artisans who have perfected their craft over many years.

While you are in Rapid City, you can see an extensive array of historic clothing as well as horse gear, weapons, household implements, cradleboards and toys at The Sioux Indian Museum. Housed within the Journey Museum and Learning Center, this collection introduces unsurpassed contemporary Sioux Indian arts and crafts by emerging artists and craftspersons.

Go on an educational adventure at the Oglala Lakota Living History Village, near Badlands National Park. Discover the landscapes, indigenous knowledge, and culture of Lakota country at this new attraction.

To take in Lakota art firsthand, visit The Heritage Center at Red Cloud Indian School. Located near Pine Ridge, this center houses an extensive collection of prize-winning paintings and sculptures, as well as historical and contemporary Lakota art. The center is open year-round and free to enter.

After touring the gallery of artwork, visit the historic campus where Chief Red Cloud is laid to rest with Lakota Culture and Art Tours at Red Cloud Indian School.

Each summer, the center hosts the world-renowned Red Cloud Indian School Art Show. Occurring for over 50 years, it is the largest and longest-running Native American art show of its kind in the country. The show goes from June 5 to Aug. 14, 2022, and showcases a variety of stunning categories.

Travel further onto the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation to gain a deeper understanding of the Lakota way of life at the Oglala Lakota College Historical Center. Here, you can view historical photographs and artwork, accompanied by an audio recording that depicts the tumultuous history of the Oglala Lakota from the early 1800s through the Wounded Knee Massacre in 1890.

Continue to broaden your cultural horizons by taking in the outstanding exhibits at the Indian Museum of North America® and The Native American Educational and Cultural Center® at Crazy Horse Memorial®.

Exhibits feature art, artifacts and history of the many different tribes within the region and throughout the U.S. During the summer, watch performances of Native dancers and singers, visit with artists in residence and learn more at Talking Circle Speaker Series presentations.

Scenic Drives in Badlands National Park

BADLANDS NATIONAL PARK

OTHERWORDLY ADVENTURE

Step into an entirely different world when you enter Badlands National Park. With 244,000 acres of jagged buttes, spires and pinnacles juxtaposed against the expansive grasslands that border it, this national park has a rugged beauty unlike any other.

EXPLORING THE PARK

Adventures in Badlands National Park are endless. Things like wildlife viewing, historic places, hiking trails, helicopter rides, horseback riding and stargazing are sure to keep you enthralled. Expect to spend anywhere from one hour to multiple days in the park – you’re going to want to have time dedicated to tour through this national treasure.

NORTH UNIT

Your journey begins in the north unit of the park, whether you enter from Wall at I-90, Exit 110 or I-90, Exit 131.

Start by taking a scenic drive along the Badlands Loop State Scenic Byway – a 62-mile round-trip drive that takes at minimum an hour. More time may be needed, depending on traffic and the number of stops you make.

Several scenic overlooks and photo spots make it irresistible to pull over and admire the otherworldly views along the way. Stop to smell the juniper and wild sage when you can.

WILDLIFE

Aside from the boundless views of the park, you’re likely to catch sight of traffic-stopping wildlife along your trek. Keep your eyes peeled and cameras at hand for bighorn sheep, bison, prairie dogs, eagles, pronghorn and rare black-footed ferrets along the way.

BEN REIFEL VISITOR CENTER

Stop at the Ben Reifel Visitor Center to familiarize yourself with the park and learn about its remarkable history. Rangers are on site to answer questions and can provide information as well as maps. Pick up materials for the Junior Ranger Program, ask about guided Ranger Programs and look inside the working Fossil Preparation Lab.

Before you leave, watch the 22-minute film to learn more about the park’s incredible story and pick up a souvenir from the Badlands Natural History Association bookstore.

WILDERNESS AREA

Within the North Unit, 64,000 acres of the park have been designated as the Sage Creek Wilderness Area – one of the largest examples of preserved mixed-prairie grasslands in the country.

In this part of the North Unit, you can enjoy horseback riding, dispersed camping, hiking and tons of wildlife viewing. This section of the park is teeming with over 1,000 bison as well as rattlesnakes and bighorn sheep. Always stay at least 100 feet from wildlife.

SOUTH UNIT

Since 1976, the National Park Service and the Oglala Sioux Tribe have partnered in managing Badlands National Park. Plans are in place to establish the park’s South Unit as the nation’s first tribal national park.

While you’re in this portion of the park, you’ll see some of the more craggy formations in areas like Red Shirt Table and Sheep Mountain Table. Take in the deep canyons, ravines and mesas that make up this stunning unit.

Be sure to stop at the White River Visitor Center on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation to speak with rangers about the significance of the Badlands in Lakota heritage. You can also explore exhibits, and get maps and information about the South Unit.

Home to the beloved Wall Drug Store, the city of Wall offers all of the expected and plenty more of the unexpected. Whether you have your heart set on classic Americana, roadside attractions, Western hospitality or discovering just what the heck is Wall Drug, you'll find it here in this little town on the "wall" of the Badlands.

MUST-SEE

Like it or love it, Wall Drug Store should be on every bucket list. This iconic road trip spot has a little bit of something for everyone, making it more than easy to spend most of the day exploring the block-long attraction. Don't be afraid to have a homemade doughnut, drink your share of free ice water, watch a T. rex come to life, purchase a t-shirt or two and grab your free bumper sticker to be a part of this treasured destination's long history.

Give your camera a workout while you're here! Take pictures with the life-size dinosaur by the interstate, ride a giant jackalope, be serenaded by the singing cowboys – the opportunities are endless.

Be sure to do a little shopping and find the perfect made-in-South-Dakota items to take home. Shop for authentic turquoise jewelry, Black Hills gold, handmade gifts, locally-made wines and goodies.

OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

Fresh air and outdoor fun are abundant in Wall. Play a round of golf at the city's 9-hole golf course, ride or walk the city's bike path that follows the Badlands wall ridge and stroll the city park. The city park has a shaded picnic area as well as a playground, swimming pool and tennis court that are free for all.

BUFFALO GAP NATIONAL GRASSLAND

In addition to Badlands National Park, Wall sits next door to the expansive Buffalo Gap National Grassland. With 600,000 acres to its name, these grasslands are a great place to enjoy dispersed camping, hiking and horseback riding.

Need more help exploring this area? Visit Wall-Badlands Area Chamber of Commerce downtown, where the friendly staff can answer your questions.

There's so much to see and do on the eastern stretch of I-90 in our region! Witness larger-than-life sculptures, art, roadside attractions, historic sites, distilleries and more along the 300-mile stretch of I-90 between Minnesota and the Black Hills and Badlands.

MITCHELL

Mitchell, at Exits 330 and 332, is home to the World's Only Corn Palace. The stunning civic center is decorated inside and out with murals made from seeds and colorful ears of corn. Each ear of corn is carefully sliced and nailed into place to create the murals that adorn the building.

Around 500,000 visitors travel from across the nation to see this one-of-a-kind creation that mixes old folk art with modern ingenuity. Visit the palace throughout the year for special events, including live entertainment, vendor fairs and the Corn Palace Festival, Aug. 24 to 28, 2022.

CHAMBERLAIN-OACOMA

The mighty Missouri River divides the state of South Dakota nearly in half. At this halfway mark, you can stop by the Lewis & Clark Welcome Center in Chamberlain at Exit 263 to admire the remarkable Dignity: of Earth & Sky sculpture.

The stainless steel work of art stands 50-feet-tall and was designed to honor the cultures of the Lakota and Dakota people. Enjoy this sculpture in person and gaze over the Missouri River at the viewing point where she stands.

MINUTEMAN MISSILE NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE

HIDDEN IN PLAIN SIGHT

Dedicated to commemorating the events of the Cold War, Minuteman Missile National Historic Site offers a chance to immerse yourself among the underlying drama of the era. Visit this park to explore three different sites along a 15-mile stretch of I-90 and learn what it was like to have the responsibility of thermonuclear war at your fingertips.

EXPLORING THE PARK

Two facilities – Launch Control Facility Delta-01 and Launch Facility (missile silo) Delta-09 – make up the national historic site in addition to the visitor center. We recommend dedicating at least an hour to fully appreciate the somber and captivating history of this site.

THINGS TO DO

Start your tour at the visitor center at Exit 131 to discover displays and remnants of the people that worked at the facilities. Friendly staff are on-site to help you navigate and learn about the park.

Go underground on a ranger-guided tour to take in Launch Control Facility Delta-01. The trek begins and ends at the entry gate to the Delta-01 compound and lasts 45 minutes. On this engrossing journey, you'll descend 31 feet underground and see ten consoles that once controlled ten nuclear missiles. Be sure to plan ahead as these tours require reservations and fill up quickly.

Resurface to take a self-guided cellphone tour of Delta-09 and Delta-01. Gaze through the glass roof of Delta-09 to see an unarmed missile that once could have been sent to the Soviet Union in just 30 minutes. Air Force veterans who served at both sites may be present to narrate these tours. Be sure to engage with them and fill out your knowledge of the Cold War as it existed on the Great Plains.

I-90 ADVENTURES

MURDO

The friendly citizens, comfortable accommodations and home-style eateries of Murdo epitomize small-town U.S.A. Visit a local museum for a nostalgic display of over 275 vintage cars, trucks, motorcycles and tractors – many featured in films and television.

West of Murdo at Exit 170, explore over 30 authentically-furnished pioneer buildings at a recreated Old West town and snap a photo of the famous I-90 sculpture, “Skeleton Man Walking Skeleton Dinosaur.”

KADOKA

Heading west, your first glimpses of the Badlands formations will appear near the town of Kadoka, at Exits 150 and 152.

Visit the only distillery in town at Exit 150 to sample their award-winning, handcrafted spirits and caffeinate at their coffee bar.

BADLANDS REGION

Westbound travelers leave I-90 at Exit 131 to see the Badlands. Tour the Minuteman Missile National Historic Site, Oglala Lakota Living History Village and Prairie Homestead at this exit.

For a birds-eye-view of Badlands National Park, book an exhilarating aerial tour with Badlands Helicopters. Experience the night sky in its full, unobstructed glory at the new observatory near Quinn.

INTERIOR

Interior is the oldest town in the Badlands, dating all the way back to the 1800s. It's located just one mile outside of Badlands National Park's south gate and is home to premier agate beds for rock hunters and trail riding.

WIND CAVE NATIONAL PARK

DISCOVER TWO PARKS IN ONE

This remarkable national park in the Southern Hills is a place of two worlds. Above ground, discover wide-open trails, prairie grasslands and wildlife, while just below your feet, 155 miles of known cave passages await.

EXPLORING THE PARK

Designated as the eighth national park in the U.S. and the first to protect a cave, the barometric winds and formations make this cave one-of-a-kind. Go underground to learn how the cave “breathes,” find rare boxwork formations and join engaging guided tours.

Above ground, discover hiking trails, prairie dogs, bison and incredible sights.

Expect to spend an hour and a half to three hours exploring the surface and cave.

THINGS TO DO

Begin your trip at the visitor center that’s open year-round and located 11 miles north of Hot Springs. Learn more about the park’s history, geology and wildlife by viewing the interactive exhibits and an educational film.

Afterward, go above or below ground. On the surface of the park, there are over 30 miles of hiking trails. Walk a portion of the 111-mile-long Centennial Trail that stretches across the Black Hills.

Descend into the cave below you and go on a ranger-guided tour. Tours last from an hour to an hour and a half, and tickets are first-come, first-serve. Arrive early to get your tickets or purchase them online in advance.

Accessible cave tours and special accommodations are available for those with limited mobility, vision and hearing. Call the visitor center to make arrangements or ask at the information desk for an accessible tour.

HOT SPRINGS

NATURAL WONDERS & MORE

Located at the southernmost edge of the Black Hills, Hot Springs plays host to captivating natural history and wonders. Active dig sites, fossil museums and mineral springs set against the sloping backdrop of the southern foothills make for a peaceful and fascinating stop.

MUST-SEE

For bones and stones enthusiasts, Hot Springs is a veritable paradise. Stop at World Fossil Finder Museum to explore the vast collection of fossils from around the world.

The collection includes specimens from the earliest and richest Ice Age fossil discovery and some of the largest marine predators to ever exist. The crown jewel of the museum is a complete skeleton of the biggest and best swimming reptile found anywhere – the Tylosaur named “Debby Sue.”

View the largest known concentration of mammoth remains in the world at an active dig site in town. New species of plants and mammals are still being discovered in the Ice Age sinkhole that led to their demise.

While you’re in town, sink into warm spring waters at the oldest commercial tourist attraction in the Black Hills. Once sought as a cure-all for a multitude of illnesses, the mineral springs now offer a naturally heated indoor waterpark. Play on waterslides and swing rings or relax in the steam room.

Visit Aug. 26-28, 2022, to see the Fall River Hot Air Balloon Festival, where over 30 hot air balloons will take flight above the Southern Hills at dawn.

CUSTER STATE PARK

WHERE THE WEST REMAINS WILD

One of the few truly wild places that remain in the country, Custer State Park is a South Dakota treasure, filled with untamed beauty. Towering pines, rolling hills and massive granite spires set the stage for adventure of all kinds.

EXPLORING THE PARK

Wildlife adventure, hiking trails, lakes and scenic drives are ready for all of your explorations! Set aside one or several days to visit, as this park is sure to keep you enthralled.

THINGS TO DO

Make one of the park's visitor centers the starting point for your journey. Located at the junction of U.S. 16A and Wildlife Loop Road, the main visitor center has displays and informative staff to help you find your way around.

On Wildlife Loop Road, visit the new Bison Center to learn the story of the park's bison and see the process of managing the herd.

Join an open-air Buffalo Safari Jeep Tour at the State Game Lodge to spot some wildlife on an off-road journey through the park.

Or, hop in your vehicle to see pronghorn, wild burros, over 1,300 bison, and more along the wildlife loop. Take off early in the morning for the best chance to spot the more elusive wildlife that call the park home.

Experience pigtail bridges, views of Mount Rushmore, tunnels and unique granite formations when you go on a scenic drive. Iron Mountain Road and Needles Highway are some of the most loved routes. Be aware that there are height and width restrictions on these roads.

For a Western experience unlike any other, visit Sept. 29 through Oct. 1, 2022, for the Buffalo Roundup & Arts Festival. Watch bison rumble across the plains, driven by cowboys and cowgirls on horseback.

CRAZY HORSE MEMORIAL®

“NEVER FORGET YOUR DREAMS”

Emerging from granite in the Southern Black Hills, Crazy Horse Memorial® is the world’s largest Mountain Carving in progress. See what it takes to carve The Mountain and immerse yourself in Native American culture and history.

ABOUT THE MOUNTAIN

The dream began in 1939 when Chief Henry Standing Bear invited sculptor Korczak Ziolkowski to create a tribute to the North American Indians and show that “the red man has great heroes, also.”

Today, The Mountain crew continues to carve the Lakota warrior, Crazy Horse, upon his steed into The Mountain. When completed, the granite sculpture will be 563 feet high and 641 feet long.

No federal or state monies finance the memorial – admission fees and contributions are the only funding that the foundation accepts.

MUST-SEE

During your visit, learn about Native American culture. Visit the Indian Museum of North America® and the Native American Educational and Cultural Center® to explore an extensive collection of art and artifacts. Learn more about the life of Korczak at the Sculptor’s Home & Studio to see his various projects.

Throughout the summer, watch Native artists, performers and culture bearers as a part of the Talking Circle Speaker Series. In addition to these special presentations, you can visit with artisans through the Artist in Residence program, held Wednesdays from May through September.

SPECIAL EVENTS

VOLKSMARCHES

Join the Spring Volksmarch, June 4 to 5, 2022, or the Fall Volksmarch, Oct. 2, 2022. These 10K organized hikes bring you directly in front of the nine-story-high face of the carving for a remarkable viewing experience.

LEGENDS IN LIGHT® LASER LIGHT SHOW

Legends in Light® laser-light show is held nightly at dark, May 27 through Sept. 30, 2022. The spectacular display turns The Mountainside into a giant 500-foot screen. Colorful animations, sound effects and laser beams are choreographed to music.

NATIVE AMERICANS' DAY

Celebrate Native Americans' Day with song, dance, special performances and speakers on Oct. 10, 2022.

DAYS OF REMEMBRANCE

Join the memorial for two special days to commemorate the dual anniversaries of The Battle of the Little Big Horn and the birth of Ruth Ziolkowski, June 26, 2022, and the dual anniversaries of the 1877 death of Crazy Horse and the 1908 birth of sculptor Korczak Ziolkowski, Sept. 6, 2022. Activities will be available for the public to enjoy during these events.

GIFT FROM MOTHER EARTH ART SHOW

Celebrate the art and crafts melding Native American cultures and the new west during the Gift From Mother Earth Art Show, June 17 to 19, 2022. View and buy artwork from the talented artists featured in the show.

Located just minutes from many of the area's major parks and monuments, Custer is an ideal spot to set up camp in the Hills for those seeking family adventure, outdoor getaways, tasty food and striking views.

MUST-SEE

A few short miles from Custer State Park, the area in and around Custer is an outdoor playground for nearly any activity you can think of. Try guided rock climbing, ride through the trees on an ATV or UTV or hop onto the Mickelson Trail on an e-bike. Local outfitters and rentals are ready to suit you up with what you need.

For a thrilling experience unlike any other, book a ride with Black Hills Balloons. Their experienced flight team takes you up in the air for an hour-long hot air balloon ride over the Hills at sunrise, high above untouched wilderness for phenomenal panoramic views.

Learn about local history and life on the prairie through Native American artifacts, authentic mining tools, and everyday relics at a museum housed in the original Dakota Territory courthouse.

Looking for a place to stay? Whether you camp, glamp or lay your head down in a cozy hotel, there are many great places to bunk up in Custer.

Book a room in a hotel for friendly staff, clean rooms and ample amenities, or give glamping a chance at Buffalo Ridge Camp Resort. This resort has it all – full hookup sites, tent camping sites, deluxe cabins, luxury treehouses and glamping teepees.

As far as food and drink go, Custer is the place to be. Try Mexican classics with contemporary flair at The Begging Burro. Enjoy guacamole made tableside, hand-crafted drinks and fresh, flavorful dishes.

A few blocks down, grab a table at Mt. Rushmore Brewing Company for craft beer made in-house. Discover delicious, pub-inspired food at Pounding Fathers Restaurant on the second floor.

JEWEL CAVE NATIONAL MONUMENT

DESCEND INTO A HIDDEN WORLD

Hidden beneath the Southern Black Hills lies the underground world of Jewel Cave National Monument. The park was discovered in 1900 and officially designated as a national monument by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1908. Over 210 miles of the cave have been mapped, and the rare formations draw visitors year-round.

EXPLORING THE PARK

With so much to see above and below ground, Jewel Cave is a natural wonder that deserves your attention. Expect to spend anywhere from an hour or two in this national monument.

Start your journey in the visitor center to learn about the monument and immerse yourself in the interactive exhibits. These engaging displays showcase the features that make the cave unique and detail the various cave explorations.

Join one of the ranger programs to learn about cave mapping, wildlife, fire ecology, wildflowers and other subjects.

After visiting the surface, take a ranger-guided cave tour. Tours range from 20 minutes to an hour and a half, and highlight the various formations, crystals and geological features.

Please note that tours are often filled by late morning and may be limited due to inclement weather and staffing levels. Arrive early and buy your ticket in advance when possible.

On the surface, hike one of the self-guided surface trails and keep your eyes open for wildlife in the area. Deer, bighorn sheep, many bird species and bats are among the inhabitants that live around the monument.

HILL CITY

FULL OF HEART

Scenic beauty, great dining, unique art and heaps of outdoor fun are waiting for you in Hill City – the “Heart of the Black Hills.” Surrounded by lakes and central to the region’s major sights, it’s easy to make this town your base camp for your next getaway.

MUST-SEE

While in Hill City, you’re sure to hear the trademark sound of a steam engine rolling into town. Since 1957, visitors and locals alike have been hopping aboard the 1880 Train to take the two-hour scenic trip that winds through the trees from Hill City to Keystone. Book a round trip, or buy a one-way ticket to stop in Keystone.

Explore the museum right where the train docks in Hill City. Railroad and train enthusiasts of all ages are sure to be delighted by its collection.

Take the chance to go on a journey through time at a museum featuring geology, mineralogy and fossils. Explore the extensive research collection of fossils and even see a replica model of STAN, the largest and most complete male T. rex fossil ever discovered.

Wind down your day at Prairie Berry Winery and Miner Brewing Company, located just next door to each other. Each offers the best of locally made, handcrafted wine and beer, as well as regular entertainment and plenty of outdoor space to soak up the sun.

Nestled in the Black Hills National Forest just a few miles away from Mount Rushmore, Keystone is a town that's no stranger to non-stop family fun. This small, former mining town is ready to take your vacation to the next level with some of the biggest bucket-list stops in the region.

CAPTIVATING MUSEUMS

As a gold-mining-town-come-tourism-staple, Keystone has heaps of history. Explore the three museums in town for a slice of local and national stories in time.

For a look at local life and the history of the Black Hills gold rush, stop by the Keystone Historical Museum. In addition to mining history, the museum details the life of Carrie Ingalls Swanzey of "Little House on the Prairie," who spent 35 years living in Keystone.

Complete your tour of Mount Rushmore by visiting the Rushmore Borglum Story to see the lifetime works of the two carvers, Gutzon Borglum and his son Lincoln.

Just down the road, get a bigger picture look at the National Presidential Wax Museum, where every U.S. president has been memorialized in wax. Detailed audio tours guide your way through the various stages of America's history and its leaders.

Round out your tour with a visit to Grapes & Grinds next door for refreshing gelato, gourmet coffee and local wine.

HIGH-FLYING ADVENTURE

Discover heart-pounding thrills and soar through the sky at several incredible attractions throughout Keystone.

Start by making memories of a lifetime at Rushmore Tramway Adventures. Fly down the Tubing Hill, zip through the air on the Pinnacle Zip Tour, wind down the hillside on the Alpine Slide, climb among the treetops in the Aerial Adventure Park and ride the Scenic Chairlift up to George's Grille for a phenomenal view of the faces.

In Rapid City, you'll discover the next big thing. Nestled on the eastern foothills of the Black Hills, this vibrant city shines as the headquarters to the region's vacation activities and beckons to be explored.

MUST-SEE

The heart of downtown is Main Street Square, on the northeast corner of Sixth and Main streets. Throughout the year, concerts, celebrations and festivals are held here. Play in the interactive fountain during the summer or ice skate in the winter.

While you're at Main Street Square, visit the Rapid City Visitor Information Center and speak with Information Specialists to help plan your time in Rapid City.

In addition to entertainment and inventive cuisine, downtown boasts creative exhibits and galleries of local art. Visit Art Alley, tucked between Main and St. Joseph streets, for an ever-changing display of art.

Take a factory tour of Mt. Rushmore Gold & Diamond Factory Outlet to see how Black Hills gold jewelry is made and purchase a piece to treasure forever.

Get outside and enjoy the scenery at Hanson-Larsen Memorial Park, also known as M-Hill. This community park is only minutes from downtown and has over 20 miles of trails to hike and bike.

Dinosaur Park and the Skyline Wilderness Area are also fantastic places to stretch your legs outdoors. View the seven dinosaur replicas and then set out to hike and bike in the wilderness area. This part of town is great for a morning outing and taking in views of the city from above.

West of Rapid City, take a walk in the Petrified Forest to see trees so old they've turned to stone. Explore the on-site museum and browse through the gift shop to find your very own piece of petrified wood to take home.

Map out your trip through the region by stopping at the Black Hills Visitor Information Center, I-90 Exit 61. Pick up park passes and off-road permits while you maximize your vacation with their free services. Shop the gift shop for unique, South Dakota-made items.

Situated between picturesque canyons, the town of Sturgis offers military history, outdoor adventure, a unique Main Street and legendary events throughout the year.

MUST-SEE

Sturgis has evolved into a playground for outdoor enthusiasts. Take a motorcycle ride, go on a hike, hop on a bicycle or explore a scenic trail on horseback.

At Bear Butte State Park, you can hike up to the peak for a view across three states. Please keep in mind that the mountain is sacred to many American Indian tribes. A state park pass is also required.

Nearby, 7,000 acres of public land are open at the Fort Meade Recreation Area with trails and more for all to enjoy.

Play a round of golf at Boulder Canyon Golf Club, located between Sturgis and Deadwood, for exceptional views and a challenging course.

Find food that's sure to get your motor running at many iconic Sturgis eateries on the main drag. Grab a bite and enjoy live music and entertainment.

Find local beer at the breweries in town. Each offers up its own carefully crafted selection of brews and tasty dishes that pair perfectly with the scenery.

Stop at an award-winning winery located at the entrance to Vanocker Canyon. Tour their on-site vineyard and the surrounding scenery with a glass of wine in hand.

Whether you ride a Harley, Indian or Yamaha into town, you can uncover a world of motorcycling history here. Visit the nearby museum to browse their curated collection of bikes and related antiques.

The fun doesn't end there for gear heads. See over 90 cars, including rare Saabs from the GM Heritage Collection and the oldest Saab in the country, at an in-town car museum.

THE STURGIS MOTORCYCLE RALLY

The Rally roar floods the region with colorful people, flavorful food, high-adrenaline rock 'n roll and thousands of motorcycles. Whether you're in the Badlands, the Southern Hills or Sturgis itself, the Sturgis Motorcycle Rally is an experience unlike any other.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Now in its 82nd year, the Sturgis Motorcycle Rally is set for Aug. 5 to 14, 2022. The Rally's beginnings were in 1938, when the event was initially held for stunts and races. Now, the ten-day event has evolved into a gathering of motorcycle enthusiasts from around the world.

It's one of the largest and longest-running motorcycle rallies on the planet, drawing in hundreds of thousands of motorcyclists to the region each year.

During the Rally, the entire region bustles with campers, bikers, on-lookers and everything else in between. Vendors and food trucks from around the country set up shop in Sturgis to sell their wares.

While you explore, be sure to walk around Main and Lazelle streets in Sturgis. It's nothing short of an adventure! You'll catch some of the biggest characters and the craziest custom bikes touring downtown.

Be sure to book your accommodations in advance. Hotel rooms and campgrounds throughout the region fill up fast during this wild event.

HIGH-OCTANE EVENTS

Concerts and special events held throughout Rally week can be found across the Black Hills and Badlands.

Discover free events all across the region at communities, campgrounds, restaurants and venues.

Just five short miles east of Sturgis, The Sturgis Buffalo Chip® holds its own lineup of Rally events and provides excellent camping close to all the action.

Established in 1981, the ten-day festival remains one of the world's most televised and longest-running independent music festivals. Check out their schedule of concerts, races and bike shows.

TAKE A RIDE

Cruise around on a coordinated ride for the chance to see the region with some of the best. Join the Mayor's Ride, Aug. 6; Medicine Wheel Ride, Aug. 7; Legends Ride, Aug. 8; or Ride With a Local, Aug. 7, 8 and 12.

Deadwood is just as wild today as it was when Western legends roamed the streets.

The historic town has been entertaining guests since 1876 with modern-day casinos, full-service spas, big-name concerts and some of the best parties around. You can rest assured this city still knows how to have a good time.

MUST-SEE

When the town's very name sparks the image of Old West gunslingers, it's only fitting you tour around and take in some of its notorious past.

Take a guided tour of the original site of the Shasta Rooms brothel. The rooms are curated with period-appropriate decor and tell the story of the Deadwood brothels' century-long history. Visitors must be at least 16 years old.

Explore the story behind the award-winning Days of '76 Celebration and Rodeo at a local museum. The event celebrates its 100th year in 2022. Exhibits feature a historic firearms collection, wagons, stagecoaches and plenty of Black Hills history.

For year-round family-friendly entertainment, see what's happening at Outlaw Square in Deadwood – the newest venue on Main Street. Their lineup includes concerts, ice skating and ice bumper cars, movie nights and holiday events.

GAMING

Play the latest slots, live table games, roulette, craps and keno right here in Deadwood, or enjoy game day every day with new sports betting spots where you can watch the game surrounded by big screens and cheering fans.

Each gaming property has its own flair, from historic buildings with grand staircases, crystal chandeliers and Old West charm to modern casinos and resorts with concert venues, restaurants, coffee shops and bars. Take your pick.

LEAD

A GOLD MINE OF HISTORY AND FUN

The town of Lead (pronounced Leed) is tucked into the steep folds of the Northern Black Hills. This quaint mountain town has the perfect mix of fascinating history, outdoor recreation, entertainment and shopping.

MUST-SEE

As the home to what was once the deepest and most productive gold mine in the Western Hemisphere, tons of captivating mining history is on display in Lead.

At the Sanford Lab Homestake Visitor Center, learn about the former mine that now hosts a Nobel Prize-winning science lab. Hit a hole in one with golf balls from the edge of the mile-wide and 1,250-foot deep Open Cut.

Tour the entire town and experience its history on a one-hour, narrated trolley tour. Board the trolley at the Sanford Homestake Visitor Center and travel along steep roads all the way up to the Hoist Room.

Listen to stories of the past along the way, learn about what's happening presently and hear what's in store for the future of this cozy Black Hills town.

Visit a replica of an authentic mine to soak up exhibits and activities for a genuine hard rock mining experience.

Local historical institutions pay homage to Lead's glory days. Visit a building nicknamed the "jewel of the Black Hills," or take in one of the performances hosted there year-round.

Find exceptional amenities and hospitality at Trailshead Lodge, where you can ride right onto the trail on an ATV, UTV, or snowmobile from their building.

SPEARFISH CANYON

Spearfish Canyon Scenic Byway

Spearfish Canyon Scenic Byway is a year-round destination known for some of the most spectacular views and outdoor recreation in the Black Hills. Take in rugged limestone cliffs, sparkling Spearfish Creek, pine, spruce, aspen and birch stands, and three waterfalls along the 19-mile drive.

WATERFALLS

Waterfalls in the Northern Hills are easy to find and admire.

Hike or drive the Spearfish Canyon Nature Area. Walkways offer easy access to this wonderland, culminating with the spectacular view of Roughlock Falls.

Bridal Veil Falls is the most easily accessible waterfall in the canyon. Cascading over the canyon walls approximately 60 feet, the best time to view this waterfall is in the spring when it's flowing with winter snowmelt.

Ample parking along the side of the byway and a crosswalk to safely get to the viewing platform make it easy to sightsee, take photos and admire the views.

Spearfish Falls is slightly off the beaten path but well worth the walk. The trail begins on the north side of the Latchstring Inn Restaurant and guides you to the bottom of the canyon, where it takes you to the roaring waterfall. To skip the hike, visit the overlook deck on the south side of the restaurant.

STAY A NIGHT OR THREE

Immerse yourself in the surrounding beauty with a stay at one of the canyon's lodges or cabins, like Spearfish Canyon Lodge, to soak in the scenery.

GET OUTSIDE

Adventure is always in season in the canyon. Leaf peepers flock to the Northern Hills in late September and early October to catch the vivid colors of ash and birch trees. In the winter, when everything is draped in snow, the winding trails become a paradise for snowmobilers and snowshoers.

Spearfish Canyon Adventures, located at Spearfish Canyon Lodge, rents everything from fat-tire bicycles to fishing gear for your outdoor excursions. Explore the canyon by renting a snowmobile, ATV, mountain bike or Slingshot.

No matter how you get around or when you go, opportunities for outdoor adventure and awe-inspiring views are boundless here.

To say nature awaits you in Spearfish is an understatement. Nature asserts itself here, grabs you by the senses and, in some cases, never lets go.

Explore this town to find incredible outdoor recreation, delicious food, craft breweries and great entertainment.

MUST-SEE

With a location that offers four seasons of world-class outdoor recreation, you can easily fill your days hiking, rock climbing, mountain biking, fishing, snowshoeing, cross-country skiing and snowmobiling. Get outfitted for your adventures at local shops like Spearfish Canyon Adventures.

Stop at the Information Center to gain a local's perspective on all the treasures this area offers and grab information to experience Spearfish to the fullest.

Visit the town's fish hatchery to see how present-day work is put into preserving and enhancing the historic site that once stocked trout for the entire region. Buy fish pellets from the gift shop to give to the trout and watch them gobble it up.

This part of the Hills plays host to a vibrant arts and cultural community, with a variety of theatrical and musical events, art galleries, festivals and markets taking place all year long.

Buy tickets at the city's opera house for live concerts, community theatre and more throughout the year.

Find scores of Western history, authentic displays and Old West antiques at the local heritage center. Cultural events and chuckwagon dinner shows are often held at the center.

BELLE FOURCHE

THE CENTER OF THE NATION

Belle Fourche (pronounced bell-foosh) welcomes travelers with its own brand of Western hospitality.

A 21-foot diameter compass rose monument situated along the Belle Fourche River marks the Geographic Center of the Nation and makes the perfect spot for a photo opportunity.

MUST-SEE

Explore the Tri-State Museum & Visitor Center to learn about the region's intriguing history. Browse unique items in their gift shop, attend special events year-round, wander along the River Walk and play a round of disc golf.

Relax outside at Rocky Point State Recreation Area. Here, you can boat, camp, canoe, kayak, swim and fish.

Belle Fourche hosts one of the oldest continuously held outdoor rodeos in the U.S. – Black Hills Roundup. See rodeo action, watch fireworks and enjoy the festivities from June 30 to July 4, 2022.

Lemmon is a small town with huge personality, located on the northwestern South Dakota border.

MUST-SEE

Just 12 miles south of Lemmon you'll find Shadehill State Recreation Area. The 100 miles of shoreline offer excellent fishing, hunting and camping.

LEMMON

FIND YOUR PATH

The Lemmon Petrified Wood Park is the largest of its kind in the world and is filled with petrified wood formations. Visit to see the collection and other rare geological specimens.

Catch rodeo action and thrills at the annual Boss Cowman Days Rodeo & Celebration, July 6 to 10, 2022. The community hosts amazing artists, craft and food vendors, concerts and parades throughout the five-day event.

The annual Hugh Glass Rendezvous, Aug. 26 to 29, 2022, is dedicated to the experience of frontier man Hugh Glass. In 1823, he was attacked by a grizzly bear near Shadehill Reservoir and lived to tell the tale. The festival invites participants to dress in historical garb, shoot period firearms and partake in other period activities.

BLACK HILLS OF WYOMING

DEVILS TOWER NATIONAL MONUMENT

A GEOLOGICAL WONDER OF EPIC PROPORTIONS

Expect to spend a couple of hours at the monument seeing it from different angles and discovering its history.

MUST-SEE

The Visitor Center has interpretive exhibits that describe the park's natural and cultural history, a bookstore and a souvenir shop. Look for the newly-installed exhibits and displays.

Take a trek on one of the five trails in the park. Tower Trail, the most popular route, takes you along a 1.3-mile path around the base and offers spectacular views.

Devils Tower is a premier crack climbing area. Anyone wishing to climb above the boulder field needs to register before climbing. Please note, there is a voluntary climbing closure in June.

During the summer, park staff and special guest speakers cover topics related to the monument's natural and cultural history. Programs include guided walks along Tower Trail and short talks outside the visitor center.

Devils Tower rises 1,267 feet above the picturesque Belle Fourche River Valley – a jaw-dropping natural rarity.

Also known as Bear Lodge, the tower was the first national monument – designated in 1906 – and is sacred to over two dozen Native American tribes. Many ceremonies are still held at the tower today.

During your visit, you may see prayer flag bundles on trees. Do not disturb or photograph these spiritual items.

Spearfish Canyon

A POWDERED PARADISE

Snowshoeing in Spearfish Canyon

Snow-seekers and wonderland dreamers, you've come to the right place. Winter in the Black Hills and Badlands has all the makings for a perfect cold-weather getaway.

Experience for yourself how warm, lifelong memories are forged from the hushed silence of winter.

THINGS TO DO

A visit to Western South Dakota is a thrilling experience any time of year. Pick from over 80 attractions that are open year-round, offering endless fun.

The stunning sights of the season and boundless, wide-open spaces to roam also offer many ways to stay busy.

As autumn dissolves into the powdery white of winter, local wildlife is easy to find as they become less shy and search for food. Be on the lookout for incredible wildlife like bison, elk, deer and bighorn sheep.

OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

Come winter, lakes once teeming with boats transform into ice fishing villages where anglers set up houses, drill holes in the ice and wait for the fish to bite.

Fast-flowing, spring-fed streams continue to run even in the coldest months, allowing fly fishing for cold-water trout year-round. Contact South Dakota Game, Fish & Parks for fishing limits and licenses at 605-233-7660.

Hop on a fat bike and hit the trails. Fat biking is permitted on any Black Hills trail where mountain biking is permitted – meaning tons of wintertime adventures.

For more fat tire fun, register for a winter race. The Winter's Fat Classic

Race, Feb. 5, 2023, is a nighttime fat tire bike race that starts and ends in Deadwood. The 28 Below, March 11, 2023, is a 50K lollypop loop through picturesque Spearfish Canyon.

Take on a fresh challenge during the winter months as waterfalls and vertical seeps freeze up and are perfect for ice climbing. The Black Hills are a great place to get started or polish your ice climbing skills. Many climbs are easily accessible and have low avalanche danger while offering challenges on vertical ice.

SPECIAL EVENTS

When the temperature dips, stay warm with magical parades, holiday markets, culinary celebrations and more. Use the Winter Events Calendar on page 99 to see a full list of what's happening while you're here.

SKIING & SNOWBOARDING

AREA SKI RESORT

Looking for a family-friendly resort with short lines, great runs, high-speed lifts and a terrain park? Then head to Terry Peak Ski Area in Lead.

The summit clocks in at 7,100 feet, offering the highest lift service this side of the Rocky Mountains.

The resort offers a full slate of services and amenities, including lessons and equipment rental.

CROSS-COUNTRY SKIING

Spend a day gliding through the snow on cross-country skis. Find peaceful solitude on the nearly 6,000 miles of abandoned railroad grades, logging roads and fire trails open to cross-country skiers.

TRAILS

In the Black Hills National Forest, Big Hill Trail near Spearfish, Eagle Cliff Trail near Lead and Carson Draw Trail near Sundance, WY, are groomed for cross-country skiing.

Other trails include the Beaver Creek trail network, portions of the Centennial and Mickelson trails, and trails in Bear Butte State Park and Custer State Park.

Scan the code to discover more or visit blackhillsbadlands.com/skiing-snowboarding.

SNOWSHOEING

Prepare for unbelievable views and peaceful solitude when you make your next trek on the snow outfitted with a pair of snowshoes.

TRAILS

Nearly 60 miles of marked and mapped trails in the Black Hills National Forest offer adventure for all skill levels. Popular trails include Centennial, George S. Mickelson, Flume, Big Hill, Crow Peak, Iron Creek and Roughlock Falls trails.

RENTALS

Custer State Park and the Black Hills Trails Office offer free snowshoes to check out for a day or weekend, with youth to adult sizing.

For an unforgettable, personally-tailored tour, book a private snowshoe hike with local tour operators. See a list of guides on page 6.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Get out on the snow and see the best of winter in the Hills when you participate in a guided snowshoeing event put on by South Dakota Game, Fish & Parks.

These ranger-led events offer hands-on instruction and snowshoe training in a group setting. They are open to all skill levels. The hikes are three miles and free to attend with a trail pass.

SNOWMOBILING

Hit the Trails on a Sled

AT A GLANCE

- 1.2 million acres of off-trail riding
- 350 miles are part of the SD and WY snowmobile program
- The trail system is open to ride, Dec. 15 through March 31

Scan the code to discover more or visit blackhillsbadlands.com/snomo.

A total of 416 phenomenal miles of groomed snowmobile trails and 1.2 million acres of unlimited off-trail riding are available throughout the Black Hills National Forest.

An additional 66 miles of groomed trails are ready to ride in the Bearlodge Mountains of the Black Hills National Forest. For more information, visit the Wyoming State Trails Program at wyotrails.state.wy.us/snow/index.aspx.

LICENSES

In South Dakota, all snowmobiles must be properly licensed to operate on public and private lands, except private land owned by the snowmobile's operator.

Resident snowmobile licenses must be permanently affixed to each side of a snowmobile, below the windshield and on the hood cowling. Snowmobilers who operate on road rights-of-way and public snowmobile trails must show proof of financial responsibility (liability insurance). Nonresident snowmobiles licensed in another state can be legally operated in South Dakota.

COST Resident, $10; Nonresident/Temporary five-day permit, $40. Prices are subject to change.

PURCHASE Buy permits at trailside vendors or online at campsd.com. A separate permit is required to operate a snowmobile in Wyoming.

TRAIL MAPS

The annual Forest Service Snowmobile Trail Map is available on the South Dakota Game, Fish & Parks website, at local Forest Service offices and the Black Hills Visitor Information Center. Snowmobile trail conditions and live trail cameras are available at gfp.sd.gov/snowmobiling.

Snowmobiling is closed in some areas, including active logging operations, winter wildlife ranges, plowed roadways, developed cross-country ski areas and posted private land.

Private property is interspersed within the Black Hills National Forest. Please respect private property owners. The Snowmobile Trail Map depicts most of the areas that are closed.

Many trails lead to restaurants, lodging and other popular amenities.

RENTAL COMPANIES

Many local rental companies are ready to effortlessly transform your Black Hills adventures into memories that last a lifetime. Rent a machine or ride from places like Spearfish Canyon Adventures, Mt. Meadow Rentals at Deerfield Lake and Trailshead Lodge & Rentals.
